War a Reflection On Christianity

Rabbi Silverman, in Bitter Condemnation, Rejoice at U. S. Peace.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Bitter condemnation of the war and praise of President Wilson's efforts to maintain peace for this country were included in sermons at the Hebrew New Year service. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman pointed to the conflict as evidence of Christianity's failure.

"The Hebrew group, being dedicated exclusively to religious and ethical ideals, must remain part of all the nations in the world in order to realize its destiny," said Rabbi Schuman in Temple Beth-El. He continued:

"The unity of Christendom, supposed to be based on a faith that inspires its civilization, is a bloody mockery. Man worships might, not right. The soldier, the millionaire, stand higher in Christendom today than the scholar, the philosopher, the priest.

"In view of the dreadnoughts, the bombs, the battlefields, the cry for increased armaments, peace seems further away from humanity than it was 2,000 years ago."

"Civilization of the twentieth century is a fiasco," said Dr. Silverman in Temple Emanuel-El. "All the cherished ideals of the age have been shattered. In Europe there is, perhaps, less civilization today than when the Huns and Goths ruthlessly swept over the Continent."

"Christianity, the dominant religion of the warring nations, is a failure, because it has failed to prevent or stop the war. If Judaism had been the dominant religion of the warring nations I would frankly declare it a failure if it had not done better. But Judaism has never had a chance."

"European war leaders who sanctioned and practiced all this brutality profess to be Christians and to carry on this unholy massacre in the name of truth, justice, honor, liberty. Bah! It is the rank hypocrisy. They want no truth, justice, honor, or liberty. If they believed in civilization and the religion they profess, they would have submitted all questions at issue to The Hague. If they desired peace today it could be obtained, for the way has been opened by President Wilson. Civilization is a failure. The dominant religion is a failure."

One Senator and five Congressmen, all from the Cracker State, were admitted to membership in the Georgia Society at a meeting last night in the Raleigh. The meeting was the first of the season. A committee to provide musical entertainment at future meetings was appointed.

Howard, Dr. H. A. Lubs, Miss Corinne Nall, R. C. Edwards, Wallace L. Bell, B. H. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Argo, Mrs. L. Beckwith, H. M. McLauren, William Rucker, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Groover, Dr. and Mrs. Joel T. Curry, Mrs. Z. T. Mizell, Judge and Mrs. Joseph Lamar, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chambers.

The committee on music consists of Mrs. E. W. Morcock, Miss Annabel Mathews, Col. L. H. O. Martin, Mrs. M. C. Bennett, and Mrs. W. W. Hairston. An entertainment committee was also named, composed of Mrs. Annie Pearce, Miss Jessie Dell, and W. M. Hairston.
